The Mormon church recently made available to its branch libraries more than a million rolls of microfilmed records stored in the world's largest genealogical library near Salt Lake City, Utah. The branch library in Middle Tennessee is located at 107 Twin Hills Dr., Goodlettsville. It is open Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturdays from 9 a.m. until 1 p.m. and on Tuesday, Thursday and Fridays from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. There is a 75¢ rental fee for use of the documents for a two-week period.

Beginning in 1978, Family Findings will carry a new column. This column will review publications of Genealogical or Historical Societies and will be edited by Miss Judy Alpha. All publications sent in will become the property of the Mid-West Tennessee Genealogical Society's Library which is housed in the Tennessee Room at the Jackson-Madison County Library. Miss Alpha will review the publications or will accept your review which should contain the name of the publication, the society that publishes it, the editor's name and address, cost of dues, number of pages, counties it covers, state it is from and any other useful information for genealogists. Please send all publications and reviews to Judy Alpha, Quarterlies Exchange Editor, 120 Mason St., Jackson, TN. 38301. This is a free service. Members are invited to suggest a name for this new column.

We respectfully dedicate this issue of "Family Findings" to the memory of Lillian R. House, 1897-1977. Mrs. House was a charter member of our Society which was organized in the home of her daughter, Mrs. L. R. Mitchell, a former editor of our quarterly.

Mr. James L. Blakemore

My Dear Friend.

I have desired very much to see you lately but have not had opportunity to call at your house. My health has been bad and I have on that account stayed more closely at home than usual. So I hope you will not think that I have intentionally neglected you. I have felt for you most deeply and earnestly desired your good. I have prayed for you, that you might be able to overcome temptation and that you might be brought back by God's grace into the bosom of of the church again. I and the whole session were deeply pained at the necessity which was laid upon us to administer the discipline of the church upon you for your grievous fault. And in passing the sentence upon you cutting you off from the Communion of the church we were influenced by two reasons. The first was that we might as officers in Christ's church, bear our testimony against sin and thus keep the church of God pure. The second reason was a sincere desire to do you good. And our earnest prayer to God was then and is now, that this sentence passed upon you by the session might have the effect to awaken you to a sense of your Danger? and your duty and bring you back to your offended Savior in deep penitence and sorrow. My Dear Brother let me exhort you to so recieve it. And will you make it a matter of earnest prayer to God that he will heal your back sliding and give you the victory over your great sin. Remember your souls everlasting interest is at stake. You have sinned against God, you have wounded your Savior who died for you. You have injured the church of which you were a member, you have sinned against your own family in setting before your children a bad exemple You have sinned against your own soul. As a member of the church you have set a bad exemple before the world. These are grievous sins and ought to awaken deep sorrow and repentance in your heart. May God help you to throw off this evil habit and come back to him as a penitent child to his offended father. We have not forsaken you. We pray for you daily and nothing would give us more joy than to see you come back and confess your sin and take up your cross and follow Christ. Remember your children. Oh, howmuch do they need the exemple and the help of a christian father. And how will you stand in the judgment day knowing that you have been unfaithful in your family. May God help you. God is merciful and will forgive, if you come back to him with a penitent heart. This is no light matter. Your sin is grievous in God's sight. Come back to him. Confess your sin. Ask His forgiveness. And pray for grace to enable you to live a christian life. And May God's everlasting blessing rest whom you and your family. And may you all be saved at last in Heaven.

Your sincere friend
B. M. Faris
